I wanted to take a moment to again thank you for your generous giving throughout this past year. Thank you!

During the Holiday season, there are multiple opportunities for generosity. I realize that you may not be able to give in all these areas. I wanted to take a moment to highlight the current and upcoming giving opportunities so that you can consider and pray about how you can be a blessing to others through your generosity during this holiday season.

Our University Ministry

Finals Week: Nov. 29 - Dec. 3

Finals week is fast approaching. This year we will be participating with Fuse campus ministry to hand out "finals survival kits." The survival kits will consist of snack items such as granola bars, small packs of nuts, candy, gum, small bags of chips, pretzels or crackers, Little Debbie's, beef jerky, Post-it notes, stress balls, small packs of Kleenex, and notes of encouragement would also be helpful. If you do not have time to shop and would like to participate you could donate money or write a short note of encouragement.

One University student wrote: "Finals week is often a time of high stress and receiving the finals bag was very unexpected but well appreciated. It was nice to be reminded that there were people who care about us and who were praying for us while we finished out the semester. It really helped me stay motivated to study and prepare for the finals that I had. It is comforting to know that there is a community who is willing to donate their time and money to put together the bags which are very much appreciated."
